

clients technical deliver teamwork vision

Opportunity

We are a dynamic fast paced tax accounting practice experiencing rapid growth and looking for driven individuals to be part of the team, helping us deliver world class proactive client service.

Based in London, we give ambitious individuals the opportunity to gain US and UK tax experience from industry experts and from a varied, diverse client base.

We believe in and provide a supportive culture for personal development and encourage individuals to develop their technical skills through formal training and client experience, their communication skills through coach-led collaborative workshops and a platform to build their own industry networks. Career progression is encouraged, clear and achievable in our firm.

Roles will be based in the London, UK office but there are also opportunities to work with the teams in our Zurich and Geneva offices.
